APPENDIX C: STAR CRAFT

Star craft are composed of sections. A craft requires engineering and operations sections. Other sections and capabilities are optional.

Building Costs

Each section costs one build point. Additional build points improve the section's durability. When a section accumulates damage equal to its build points, it, and all aboard, is destroyed.

Example

This engineering section is a two-point section (E2). It takes one damage, but is functional. If it takes one more point of damage, it, and all aboard, is destroyed.

Listing Sections

As a craft takes damage, sections are destroyed in the order they are listed. When the craft is built, the builder can list the sections in any order desired, but once listed, the sequence cannot change.

Example

The Kit-Kat, a gunboat, is listed as: Cargo1, Engineering1, Operations1, Berthing1, d6/1. The first damage point eliminates the cargo section. The next damage point destroys the engineering section, then operations, and finally, berthing, in that order.

Cargo Section (C)

Each point spent on the cargo section allows the craft to carry one cargo unit. A cargo unit is roughly a truck, or a squad of space infantry.

Engineering Section (E)

The engineering section provides propulsion. If destroyed, the craft loses propulsion and is DIW. Emergency power in other sections allow basic functionality and life support.

Berthing Section (B)

Berthing enables a craft to make extended space runs. Berthing includes a galley, waste recycling, berthing, virtual reality capabilities, and in a pinch, suspended animation. Without berthing, after combat, the craft must return to a base or mother ship.

Operations Section (O/ops)

All craft require an ops section. The ops section is free. Additional points do cost, though. If ops is destroyed, the ship is DIW, and cannot communicate.

Other Sections

Other sections, such as science bays, botany bays, machine shops, etc., may be added as prescribed by the scenario.

Weapons

Every six build points spent on weapons enable the craft to deal one die of damage. Abbreviate weapons as: Xd6, where X is the number of dice of damage the craft deals.

Example

A builder builds a corvette with weapons that do 2d6 damage. This costs 12 build points.

Shields

Two build points buy one shield factor. Each shield factor negates one damage point whenever the craft is hit.

Example 1

A craft is built with two shield points, which cost four build points. During combat, the craft suffers three damage points. The shields stop two damage, so the craft only suffers one damage. The following turn, the craft takes an additional two damage points. However, the shields stop two damage, and the craft suffers no additional damage.

Example 2

The Kit-Kat, a gunboat, is C1E1O1B1, d6/1. The Kit-Kat does d6 damage and shields stop one hit each time the vessel is hit.

Additional damage destroys the cargo section first, then engineering, operations, and berthing, in that order.

DOG FIGHTS

The player moves first against the game. Players alternate turns until one side wins.

Player's Turn

The player moves each of his craft, in any sequence, one at a time. He must complete one craft's turn before proceeding to the next. When he is done, the next player begins.

Craft's Turn

A craft can either (1) maneuver against a foe, or (2) fire on a target. Craft begin disengaged.

Engagement

Craft maneuvering against foes are "engaged" in combat, and can only maneuver against those foes. Engaged craft may hold different positions relative to different foes. For example, a craft might be pursuing one foe and fleeing another.

Relative Positions

Positions are: pursuit, fleeing and turning.

- Pursuit: A pursuing craft follows its foe.
- Fleeing: A fleeing craft leads its foe.
- Turning: Place turning craft side-by-side, facing opposite directions.
- Disengaged craft are neither pursuing, fleeing, nor turning. Place disengaged craft away from other craft.

MANEUVER

Resolving Maneuver

Regardless of whose turn it is, the winner of a pilot check has the following options:

- A "fleeing" craft can (1) disengage, (2) take the "turning" position against its pursuing foe.
- A "turning" craft can (1) disengage, or take the "pursuit" position against its turning foe.
- A "disengaged" craft pursue a foe, or conduct a firing run.

- A "pursuit" craft remains in the "pursuit" position.

- On a tie, positions remain unchanged. If disengaged foes tie, they are now turning.

Example 1

Ajax (DX11, pilot+1 = 12) and his foe (DX10) each pilot star craft E1O1B1, d6/1. Both are disengaged. Ajax maneuvers on his foe. He rolls 12; his foe rolls 10. Ajax wins, and pursues his foe. Place Ajax's craft behind his foe.

Exiting

Except on the first round of a dogfight, any disengaged craft can exit the dogfight during its turn. Once a craft exits, it cannot return.

Pursuit

Only one craft can pursue a fleeing foe. A craft pursuing a target and fleeing a tailing foe can (1) fire on his target or (2) maneuver against his tail. If he maneuvers against his tail, his target automatically disengages.

Unopposed Maneuver

A spacecraft maneuvering against an already engaged opponent automatically takes pursuit.

FIRING

A craft can only fire on a target he is pursuing, or on a target he is making a firing run against.

Pursuit

A pursuing attacker hits his target and rolls for damage by passing 3/DX+GUNNER.

Example 1b

Ajax's foe tries to disengage from Ajax, but fails. It is now Ajax's turn. Ajax rolls 9, and hits his foe.

Firing Run

An attacker can fire on target from which he is disengaged. He hits and rolls for damage by passing 4/DX +GUNNER. Afterwards, craft are disengaged from one other.

Facing Firing Run

On the first turn of a dogfight, if an attacker makes a FACING firing run against a foe, both craft simultaneously hit and roll for damage by passing 3/DX +GUNNER. Afterwards, craft are disengaged from each other.

Damage

The hitting craft rolls the number of dice indicated by its weapons. This total is the number of damage points applied to the target.

Shields

The defender deducts one damage point for each one of his craft's shield factors.

Effective Damage

Each remaining damage point destroys one point of section. Sections are destroyed in sequence as listed in the defender's ship record. The attacker may inflict fewer damage points than he rolled, preserving craft sections.

Dead In The Water (DIW)

If the engineering or ops sections are destroyed, the craft can no longer move or fire on enemies. The craft is "dead in the water" (DIW). Emergency power sustains life in surviving sections. A character is killed if he occupies a section when it is destroyed.

Example 1c

Ajax hits his foe. Ajax rolls d6, for a 3. The foe's shields stop 1 damage, leaving 2 effective damage. The 2 damage destroys the engineering and ops sections. Berthing is still intact, but the ship is DIW.
